About Us

WB Pizza opened in November of 1999, but our story really began long, long ago in a place far, far away... Will Barnes (the "WB") comes from a small town in northwest Indiana, approximately thirty miles from Chicago. Growing up, he was influenced by the diversity of dining options in "the region". All around the Chicago metropolitan area were creative, independent restaurants doing well, cooking from scratch and using Mom's recipes. It is this quality approach to cooking that WB Pizza is trying to share with Indianapolis.

At WB Pizza we make our own sauces, dough, bread, soups and desserts from basic ingredients like flour, sugar, salt, yeast, eggs, sour cream, cream cheese, freshly ground spices, fresh-pack tomatoes, hand-cut onion and garlic and pure olive oil, all without the use of fillers, chemical conditioners, coloring or preservatives. From our signature deep dish pizza, the Grant Park (which is served best upside-down with all of the cheese on the bottom in the classic Chicago-style), to our Baked Linguine Di Napoli, with its Roma tomatoes smothered in a blend of mozzarella, provolone, white cheddar and asiago cheeses, everything you eat in our restaurant will be fresh and wholesome. As you can see, we're serious about good cooking, especially great pizza.

Like many independent restaurants, we rely on "word of mouth" advertising and we hope that once you've tried WB Pizza you'll be back. We look forward to seeing you often as you explore our menu. Don't forget to share us with your friends!
